

FRENCH Films & Guests

16-26
FEB
2012

FRENCH FILMS & GUESTS AT THE 10TH JAMESON DUBLIN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

With the support of the Cultural Service of the French Embassy, this year's Jameson Dublin International Film Festival is bursting at the seams with French cinema, ranging from seminal seventies classics to lush interpretations of Greek legend to Aki Kaurismaki's wonderfully funny Le Havre. Beginning with Juliette Binoche's starring role in Elles and ending with the second screening of Marjane Satrapi's Chicken with Plums, the festival's selection of ten French films is as diverse as it is fascinating.

Friday 17/2

- Elles - Cineworld, 6.15pm
Starring Juliette Binoche

Saturday 18/2

- Goodbye, First Love - Cineworld, 6.30pm
Mia Hansen-Love's wonderful new film
- The Monk - Cineworld, 8.30pm
With Vincent Cassel
Director Dominik Moll will attend the screening
- The Fairy (Belgium) - Light House Cinema, 2.30pm
Special Event: Marin Karmitz, will give a masterclass on Sat 18/2 at 12pm
Marin Karmitz, director and founder of the MK2 production company, distributor and exhibitor, has produced over 100 films and distributed close to 350 films.
- Monsieur Lazhar (Canada) Savoy, 11am
Nominated for the Oscar for best foreign language feature

Sunday 19/2

- Black Gold - Cineworld, 1.3pm
- Orphée - Light House, 3.45pm
Jean Cocteau's 1949 masterpiece
introduced by Van Papadopoulos of the Institut Lumière
- Le Havre - Light House, 8.30pm
Aki Kaurismaki's new film, a prize winner at Cannes

Monday 20/2

- My Little Princess - Lighthouse, 6.10pm
Starring Isabelle Huppert

Tuesday 21/2

- L'important c'est d'aimer - Light House, 4pm

Thursday 23/2

- Sleepless Night - Light House, 6.15pm

Friday 24/2

- Chicken with Plums - Cineworld, 6.10pm
Starring Mathieu Amalric
Director Marjane Satrapi and editor Stéphane Roche will attend this screening

Sunday 26/2

- Chicken With Plums - Cineworld 9, 4.30pm
- Café de Flore - Cineworld 17 2pm

THE JAMESON DUBLIN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

16 - 26 FEBRUARY 2012
Info & Bookings at www.idiff.com

CONCERT

BLUMINA ENSEMBLE AT THE HUGH LANE GALLERY

12 FEBRUARY 2012

The Sundays at Noon series is delighted to welcome back pianist Elisaveta Blumina and bassoonist Mathias Baier to the Hugh Lane Gallery. They are joined on this occasion by oboist Clara Dent for performances of trios by Francaix, Previn and Poulenc.

This concert is supported by both the French and the German Embassy in Dublin. The Sunday concerts are free and regularly attract full houses so please arrive early to ensure a good seat.

Programme:

Jean FRANCAIX (1912-97)
Trio pour hautbois, basson et piano
André PREVIN (*1929)
Trio for Piano, Oboe and Bassoon
Francis POULENC (1899-1963)
Trio pour hautbois, basson et piano

Sunday, 12/2 @ 12h (Noon)

Dublin City Gallery, The Hugh Lane
Charlemont House, Parnell Square North, Dublin 1
Admission Free
info.hughlane@dublincity.ie
Ph + 353 1 222 5550
www.hughlane.ie - www.blumina.com

SEMINAR & LECTURE

ART, SCIENCE AND INTERDISCIPLINARITY WITH BRUNO LATOUR

17 & 20 FEBRUARY 2012

World-renowned philosopher and anthropologist Prof. Bruno Latour, Scientific Director and Vice-President for Research of "Science Po", the French "Grande Ecole" based in Paris focused on political sciences, has been invited by two local Irish partners with the support of the French Embassy:

- Dublin City University (DCU): Bruno Latour will give a seminar on interdisciplinarity, for academics and post-graduate students. This seminar will start on Friday 17 February, at 3.30pm

- Science Gallery and Trinity College Dublin (TCD): Bruno Latour will deliver a general public lecture at the Science gallery, on Monday 20 February, at 6 pm.

He will also meet the many Irish alumni of "Sciences Po", on the occasion of an official reception offered by the French Embassy .

Bruno Latour, born in Beaune, Burgundy, was trained first as a philosopher and then an anthropologist. He has been professor at the "Centre de sociologie de l'Innovation" at the "Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Mines" in Paris, and visiting professor at the university of California (UCSD), at the London School of Economics and at the Harvard University.

Bruno Latour, Scientific Director and Vice-President for Research of "Science Po" Paris.

Art, science and interdisciplinarity with Bruno Latour:

Info: science@ambafrance-ie.org - 01 708 8303

- Seminar: 17/2 @ 3.30pm (for academics and post-graduate students)
Dublin City University DCU - www.dcu.ie

- Public Lecture: 20/2 @ 6pm
Science Gallery, Trinity College Dublin - www.sciencegallery.com

EXHIBITION

THE HOLOCAUST IN EUROPE

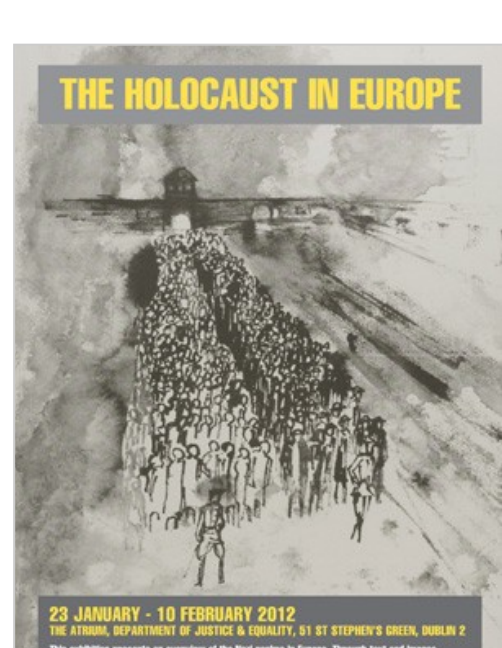

UNTIL 10 FEBRUARY 2012

Holocaust Education Trust Ireland in association with Mémorial de la Shoah and the French Embassy in Ireland invite you to view the exhibition: The Holocaust in Europe. This exhibition presents an overview of the Nazi regime in Europe. Through text and images, it provides detailed impressions of prewar life, the years of terror and the aftermath. This exhibition will be on display in The Atrium, 51 St Stephen's Green, Dublin 2 from the 23 January 2012 - 10 February 2012. This exhibition will then tour through the libraries network throughout Ireland.

The exhibition will be launched on Monday, 23 January 2012 at 6pm in The Atrium, 51 St Stephen's by Mr Alan Shatter TD, Minister for Justice and Equality and H.E Mrs Emmanuelle d'Achon, Ambassador of France to Ireland. Mr Luc Levy, Head of the International Department at the Mémorial de la Shoah, will also make a short presentation at the launch of the exhibition.

Exhibition: THE HOLOCAUST IN EUROPE

23 JANUARY - 10 FEBRUARY 2012
The Atrium, Department of Justice & Equality,
51 St Stephen's Green, Dublin 2
Info: 01 6690593
info@hetireland.org
www.hetireland.org

CONTEST

ALLONS EN FRANCE !

24 FEBRUARY 2012

The Cultural Service of the French Embassy offers the opportunity to one Irish student to take part into the Allons en France contest, and win a 10 days stay in France, in July 2012! The theme of this year is "The new challenges for the Human Rights in the 21st century."

This contest is open to Irish students, between 16 and 25 years old. The deadline for registrations is 24th February 2012.

Registration Form, information and rules available at: www.ambafrance-ie.org

EDUCATION & TRAINING

CULTURELAB: WIN A THEATRE SUMMER TRAINING IN FRANCE!

5 APRIL 2012

For the first time this year, the CultureLab project, organised by the Institut Français in Paris with the support of the French Embassy in Ireland, will give a unique opportunity to a young Irish student or professional in the field of theatre (aged from 18 to 30) with a proficiency in French, to win a Professional Summer Training at the Street Theatre Festival in Aurillac (France).

The selected candidate will win a thrilling artistic and pedagogical stay at the renowned Street Theatre Festival in Aurillac - Festival de théâtre de rue d'Aurillac, from the 18th to 26th August 2012. The festival will give the chance to improve both his artistic and linguistic skills, through meetings with artists, debates, workshops... and will share an intercultural experience with other young French speakers from all over the world!

So... Do you speak French? Are you currently involved in the field of Performing Arts?

To get the chance to win this Summer Training at the Street Theatre Festival in Aurillac, please send a CV, along with a cover letter in French (and a recommendation letter from one of your teachers, if you are a student) before 5th April 2012 to :

Claire Rouquette
Cultural Service of the French Embassy
1 Kildare Street, Dublin 2
linguistic@ambafrance-ie.org

* The French Embassy will cover costs for the International Summer Training, including the return flight ticket, accommodation and meals on site.

Cultural and Scientific Service

Embassy of France in Ireland
4th Floor, 1 Kildare Street
Dublin 2

Tel. 00353 (0)1708 8300

scac@ambafrance-ie.org

www.ambafrance-ie.org

